

Choc Affair

You've done all this work, going through our entire catalogue and now you deserve to treat yourself to a few bars of chocolate! And there's a free bar of chocolate for all our wholesale customers who place an order before the end of January 2019.

Choc Affair is a small local chocolate business in York. The chocolate comes from Dominica in the Caribbean and, whilst it does not carry the Fair Trade mark, the owners of Choc Affair believe in following the principles of Fair Trade and are committed to producing sumptuous, and ethically made chocolate.
